W. Nevins McCann is a member of the Real Estate Law and Land Use and Corporate Law and Transactions practice groups. Mr. McCann has managed the execution of numerous M&A deals of all sizes and has developed substantial expertise negotiating and drafting contracts of all kinds. He represents real estate developers in all phases of the development process, including locating and acquiring sites, entering into development and redevelopment agreements, fully permitting sites, financing, construction, leasing and sales.

Mr. McCann has extensive land use experience and regularly appears before zoning boards throughout New Jersey. He has obtained permits and approvals for over 10,000 residential units, ten million square feet of office space, millions of square feet of retail and industrial space and several hotels and fractional/timeshare residences. Mr. McCann has also completed the development of a world class golf course.

He has worked with various federal, state and local agencies on a variety of projects, including those impacted by wetlands, Meadowlands, CAFRA, waterfront development and other regulations.

He has represented numerous redevelopers of blighted properties and has assisted clients in obtaining tax abatements for such projects. Mr. McCann has assisted numerous developers in registering projects with the New Jersey Division of Community Affairs, as well as with the NJ Real Estate Commission (NJREC). Mr. McCann was one of the first to file a fractional/time share plan under the new Timeshare Act with the NJREC.

In August 2009, Mr. McCann was a chosen recipient, of the New Jersey Law Journal's 2009 40 Under 40 recognition. Honorees named to the New Jersey Law Journal list are considered top leaders in the state's legal community.

Mr. McCann graduated from Georgetown University in 1994 with a double major in Finance and International Business. While at Georgetown, Mr. McCann spent a semester at Oxford University, Brasenose College, International School of Commerce and Finance. Mr. McCann went on to graduate from the joint JD/MBA program at Villanova University School of Law and Business a semester early in December of 1997.
