Liza M. Walsh focuses her practice on federal and complex commercial litigation, with emphasis on intellectual property, antitrust, and class action defense matters. Ms. Walsh has extensive experience representing some of the country's largest and most prestigious companies, through which she has earned a reputation of being a fierce advocate on her clients' behalf.

Ms. Walsh has represented clients from a diverse range of industries, including pharmaceuticals, health and title insurance, financial services, life sciences, a range of technological fields, and other service and product industries. She also has substantial experience in defending complex, putative class actions and handling issues involving the consumer fraud, antitrust, intellectual property, and health care/ERISA laws on behalf of a variety of clients. In addition, Ms. Walsh's strong leadership skills have been shown through her representations as liaison counsel to groups of defendants in multi-party litigation and as Counsel to the Special Master in a continuing court-ordered environmental cleanup in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Ms. Walsh has been named to Best Lawyers in America[®] in the field of Commercial Litigation (2007-2011), Patent Law (2011-2012), and ERISA-Litigation (2012). She was also chosen by NJBIZ Magazine as one "New Jersey's Best 50 Women in Business."

Ms. Walsh has been with Connell Foley LLP since 1986, and, only five years after joining, became a partner based on her sharp advocacy and dynamic leadership skills. While maintaining a busy practice, Ms. Walsh served a fifteen-year term as a member of Connell Foley's Hiring Committee, Management Committee and Executive Committee and currently serves as Chair of the firm's Finance Committee.

Prior to joining Connell Foley LLP, Ms. Walsh served as Law Clerk to the Honorable Clarkson S. Fisher, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey from 1985 to 1986. Prior thereto, she served as Law Clerk to the Honorable Charles Harrington, J.S.C. of the New Jersey Superior Court from 1984 to 1985.
