Connell Foley is extremely proud to announce Patricia Lee, chair of the firm's ERISA and Benefit Plan Litigation Group, has been named by NJBIZ to the 2018 list of the "Best 50 Women in Business."

According to the publication, "The Best 50 Women in Business awards program honors New Jersey's most dynamic women in business that have been making headlines in their field." Patti and the other honorees were selected by an independent panel of judges and are being recognized for their outstanding contributions to their industries and communities. An awards dinner will be held on March 19 at The Palace at Somerset Park.

Patti is an accomplished litigation attorney representing clients across New Jersey's most important industries, including healthcare, construction, real estate and engineering. With an exceptionally sharp legal mind and an innate ability to strategically evaluate her client's situation, Patti litigates matters ranging from minor disputes to complex cases involving millions of dollars. She takes a collaborative approach with her clients to understand their needs, identify their objectives and develop an efficient legal strategy that meets their business goals. Patti has tried several cases to verdict and handled numerous appeals from trial court orders and jury verdicts. She appears regularly in federal and state courts, as well as arbitration, mediation and administrative tribunals.
